

Keep The System Clean And You'll Be Healthy

Elimination helps to avoid colds, headaches and epidemics

ANYONE who has watched himself know there is nothing so important to health and comfort as regular daily elimination. Half of the minor illnesses of life are due to neglect of this. The five million men who were in our army know the importance the doctor attached to this function.

By all means try to regulate yourself by intelligent diet and exercise, but when these fail you will need a laxative, one as easy to nature in its action as skill can make it. In the opinion of many thousands of good Americans such a one is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin. It acts promptly, gently and without griping and will with certainty regulate any tendency to constipation that you may have.

Take it when you feel drowsy, dizzy or bilious, when you feel a cold or a fever coming on, when there is an epidemic, when you have eaten anything about which you are in doubt. It is at such times that you need to be free of poisons and of fermenting foods. You can buy Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drug store for 50c and $1 a bottle. Thousands of families have it constantly in the house against emergencies.

In spite of the fact that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the largest selling liquid laxative in the world, there being over 6 million bottles sold each year, many who need its benefits have not yet used it. If you have not, send your name and address for a free trial bottle to Dr. B. Caldwell, 511 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

Benham, Ky., Oct. 27, 1919.

Dr. C. DeHoniesto, Chattanooga, Tenn.:

Dear Doctor—I am writing you a few lines to let you hear from us, as we are still well and getting along nicely. Our health seems as though it has come to stay. Now we can eat anything that our appetite calls for, and we can get our proper rest at night. As you know, we could not sleep sometimes as the result of our kidneys being so badly affected. So Mr. Pollard and I have been thinking of you for several days, and meanwhile he suggested that I write you and send a testimony to be published in your home town paper, as we feel that that is one way in which to extend our appreciation to you for what you have done for us. Wishing you all the success in life,

Yours truly,

MR. AND MRS. S. N. POLLARD.

Newberry Clique Cries "Political Frame-Up"

(Jay G. Hayden in Detroit News.) Frantic effort of the Newberry counsel to hold the 135 defendants together, features the third day since the Grand Rapids grand jury issued indictments.

James O. Murfin, personal counsel for nominal Senator Newberry, in every issue of the newspapers since he returned from New York, has presented a new statement assuring the minor defendants that Mr. Newberry is ready to stand all of the cost of defense of the 135 indicted men and pleading with these men to come in and be defended.

The purpose of this policy is made evident by developments in Judge Sessions' court, where two of the defendants have already pleaded guilty to the charge of conspiracy, while several others have announced the employment of separate counsel to defend them individually. One of the defendants who has admitted his guilt is A. K. Moore, a member of the inner circle of the Newberry campaign. Mr. Moore was an assistant to the campaign manager, Paul H. King, working from the Detroit headquarters.

There are obviously two courses for the lesser defendants. One is to plead guilty, turn state's evidence and depend on their admission of conspiracy with the campaign to obtain leniency. The other is the one which Mr. Murfin is begging them to pursue; to stand together with Mr. Newberry, Mr. King and the other principals in the case and take the fate which may fall to these leaders.

Coupled with their effort to prevent a scramble for the immunity tub in their own camp, the Newberry leaders have raised the inevitable cry of "political frame-up." They assert that the prosecution is the result of a plot between A.

Mitchell Palmer, attorney-general, and Henry Ford, to make Mr. Palmer president of the United States. There are several facts bearing on this charge, that the Newberry statements do not mention.

Judge Sessions, who ordered the grand jury, is a republican, elected on this charge, that the Newberry statements do not mention. Members of the grand jury are said to have divided sixteen republican and seven democrat, certainly a very fair cross-section of the citizenry of western Michigan.

Frank C. Dailey, assistant attorney-general, who conducted the investigation, is a democrat, but, in a long series of successful prosecutions of men charged with election fraud, this is the first time Mr. Dailey has ever prosecuted republicans. Mayor Don C. Roberts, of Hiale Haute; Mayor Bell and others whom Mr. Dailey proceeded against in his own state were all members of his own party.

As indicating Mr. Dailey's non-partisanship, it also might be pointed out that he recently resigned the prosecution of the I. W. W. cases in Chicago because then Atty.-Gen. Gregory favored the pardoning by President Wilson of prominent Indiana democrats whom Mr. Dailey had convicted.

Mr. Dailey refused to accept the democratic nomination for governor of Indiana in 1918, and he has consistently refused to take any political office, except the district attorneyship, which he made the basis for his prosecution of the crooked democratic election officials of Indiana. He resigned as soon as his Terre Haute election prosecutions were concluded.

BELGIUM ON THE MEND

(From the New York Tribune.) Washington.—There is no Bolshevikism in Belgium.

Attending the International Labor Conference here, the Belgians tell no tale of despair, but describe, through their experts, a nation foremost in recovery from war's devastation, though trod upon with the most viciousness by the invader.

These are the outstanding facts: Belgian coal production has been brought back to eight-sevenths per cent of the pre-war output.

The big diamond cutting industry of Antwerp has completely recovered. Unemployment has been all but solved; at the close of the war there were 800,000 men drawing unemployment benefit, while today there are but 200,000, with the number going down rapidly.

The cost of living has been driven down. At one time the price level went up to 1,100 as compared to 100 in pre-war times, while today it is 254, about on a par with the American figure. At the time of the signing of the armistice it was 750.

Rebuilding of homes is going forward under a union of municipalities, through which the best architects are employed. State aid is extended to municipalities, while refugees are brought back with money accumulated in the "King Albert Fund."

National teamwork. There has been a sinking of differences in industry and politics that has resulted in national teamwork for the regeneration of the country.

Collective bargaining has been established, disputed points to be settled after impartial inquiry.

A political balance has been secured by which all parties are working together in the government, even in the face of a political campaign. Belgium's coal mining has so far recovered from war's effects that low grade coal is being exported. The iron and steel industry is not recovering as rapidly as the Belgians had expected, but due to no fault of Belgium's. Germany, in the treaty, agreed to supply Belgium with a certain quantity of gas coal, but she has not delivered the product.

NARROWLY ESCAPE FIRE

Newark, O., Dec. 4.—Fire, which for a time threatened the entire business section, destroyed two buildings here early yesterday with a loss estimated at from $150,000 to $200,000. Ten families, living in second floor apartments, narrowly escaped.

MOBILE BILL INVOLVED

Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 5.—The Alabama supreme court today handed down a decision declaring the Craft enlarged city commission bill for Mobile unconstitutional and ruled that the present president of the commission there and his associates should continue to hold office.

At the same time the supreme court ruled that the recruiting bill was constitutional, but that Judge Lam Dico, of Opelika, could not be legislated out of office and he was made an associate judge.
